Dear Mr. Churchwell,

I sent previous communication to your email and that of the county's designated email address for the commission. I never saw it posted.

Please confirm that you received this.

My job in the community is a government watchdog.

I noticed the following from reading the bylaws:

Katz resigned on Feb 2!

Section 11. Any vacancy occurring on the Commission shall be filled by the Commission within 10 days. The Commission shall select a replacement Commissioner from the pool of most qualified applicants previously selected by the county elections officer.

The commission's next meeting falls beyond this requirement.

Thanks

Andy

Subject: redistricting commission is not following the ordinance

Caution: This email originated from a source outside of the County of Santa Barbara. Do not click links or open attachments unless you verify the sender and know the content is safe.

Dear CEO Miyasato,

A couple of weeks ago, I started following the progress of the redistricting commission. I am concerned that the ordinance is not being followed to the letter.

The most current issue has to do with the commission voting to award the counsel contract to Fred Woocher, despite the fact that he is clearly disqualified from serving having been Supervisor Farr's attorney on an election matter within the 8 year prohibition.

The second issue has to do with filling vacancies. Ms. Katz resigned on Feb 2. The next meeting, that will involve interviewing for her replacement, is not scheduled until Feb 22, despite the fact that the ordinance requires vacancies to be filled within 10 days.

Both of these items have been brought to the attention of Mr. Churchwell who is currently advising the commission.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.
